Craig Webster

Craig Webster, a 1969 graduate, was a speedy multi-sport athlete who earned 8 varsity letters in football, basketball, baseball, and track and field. In football, Webster was a two-time All-Circuit and All-Area performer at halfback. As a junior he rushed for over 1,000 yards and his 101 total points on 16 touchdowns and 5 extra points were third best in the Lansing area. As a senior he led the Bulldogs to a 8-1 overall record. He again rushed for over 1,000 yards, scored an area best 106 points, and was the Most Valuable Player on a Capital Circuit League Championship team. In basketball, he was a two-time All-Circuit and All-Area performer known for scoring and his pesky defense. As a junior he led the Capital Circuit in scoring and as a senior he led his team to a 16-5 overall record. In baseball, Webster was a three-time All-Circuit outfielder. As a junior his .432 batting average was remarkable. As a senior he was a unanimous vote when he batted .350 and led the Bulldogs to both a Capital Circuit Championship and an appearance in the Diamond Classic. That spring he decided to juggle both baseball and track and field. Webster's time of 22.7 was one of the area's best times in the 220 yard dash. Webster's running and punting abilities earned him a football scholarship to the Air Force Academy. Later, he transferred to Michigan State University where he lettered in lacrosse.
